THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

Committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together through the ministries of word, worship and service

FROM FATHER SIMON

One of the hardest things for a priest to do is to preach to his own family. In my first year as a priest, I was celebrating Mass at home with my family on my parents' wedding anniversary. What do you say to the two people you love, respect and admire? I remember saying to them how much I appreciate the sacrifices they make for the family and how they make the Eucharist a reality in their everyday living. I thanked my father for the long hours of work that he put in to make sure we had food on the table, clothes on our backs, a roof over our heads and an education for our future. It was him saying 'this is my body, given up for you'. I thanked my mother who gave birth to us, made it possible for us to have our meals on time, lunches packed, clean clothes to wear, all done with a smile. It was her saying to us 'this is my blood poured out for you'.

On this Veterans Day, it is appropriate to extend this analogy to include those who fought to defend our freedom. Imagine a soldier who lays dying somewhere in a jungle or a desert or in a field of grass or on some battlefield. He musters his last ounce of energy, looks in the direction of his homeland, thinking of the family and country he loves and whispers 'this is my body, given up for you'. They gave up their 'today' for our 'tomorrow'.

Similarly, the readings this weekend focus on two widows who give up all they have. The widow of Zarephath gives the last morsel of food she has to the prophet who promises her that 'the jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the Lord sends rain upon the earth'. In the Gospel, the widow's contribution to the temple treasury is acknowledged by Jesus. In her case, we do not know how she fared in the days after she gave her mite to God. The scriptures suggest that the lowly of the world are those who have a depth and an integrity that is expressed in real giving. They remind us that authentic generosity involves risk and sacrifice, a giving that exacts something of us. True giving is measured not so much in raw amounts as in the cost to the giver – like a parent, a partner, the widow and the veteran.

So, as you give thanks to and for those who defend our freedom, pray for the veterans whose lives are scarred by the wounds of battle, and those who are haunted by the experiences of combat – maybe our help is needed as much as our praise and thanks.

Blessings!

IN TRUE THANKSGIVING

Thursday, November 22nd at 10:00am

At our Thanksgiving Mass we will pray for members in our community serving in the military. In the midst of the holiday season, it is important to show gratitude for their great sacrifice of service and dedication to freedom, as well as their swift homecoming. Anyone in the military, veterans and their families who would like to participate in the Mass, please contact Paul Scavone at the rectory.

There will also be an 8:00am Mass on Thanksgiving morning.

If you have a loved one or friend currently serving in the military, please contact Michael Jolls at the rectory so that we can include them in our prayers and this listing in the bulletin. On behalf of Queen of All Saints, thank you for your service.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - November 11, 2018

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." - Mark 12:43-44

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your “first fruits” or from what is “left over”?

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year, at 1:30pm. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A Baptismal Preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must also be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
