

QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS BASILICA

A Roman Catholic Church

MARCH 22, 2020

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

FROM FATHER SIMON

For almost 28 years as a priest, my primary and most important activity was celebrating Mass with a community. Last Sunday, for the first time things were very different, and I am sure it was for most, if not all of us. The coronavirus pandemic exposed our human fragility and we feel powerless in the onslaught of this global threat.

In these difficult times we find comfort and strength in our faith. The suspension of Masses in most of the United States, a decision, not made lightly for the common good, has created a vacuum in our spiritual lives. The eucharist, as we all know, is ‘the source and summit of all Christian life’ and priests will continue to offer Masses in private. Please note that the Church is still at prayer during these extenuating circumstances and that the faithful are dispensed from fulfilling the Sunday obligation.

We at Queen of All Saints will video record Sunday Mass and have it posted on our website so that you can benefit by participating at home. One of the comments I received from someone who viewed our Mass online said ‘Beautiful Mass today Father! Not as good as the real thing, but as good as it gets given the circumstances.’ Speaking to the people last Sunday Pope Francis said “United to Christ we are never alone, but instead form one body, of which he is the head. It is a union that is nourished with prayer and also with spiritual communion in the Eucharist, a practice that is recommended when it isn't possible to receive the sacrament.” The idea of “spiritual communion” — inviting Jesus into one's heart and soul when receiving the actual sacrament isn't possible — is part of Catholic tradition.

So, I encourage you to watch the Mass online, on television or on cable, and if you cannot do this you may wish to make a “spiritual communion”. The following are guidelines for “spiritual communion” (see next page).

Just a few updates on office hours and other happenings at the basilica:

The Parish Offices will remain open from 8:30 am to 12 noon Monday through Friday. The parish offices will be closed on Saturday and Sunday. In case of emergencies please call the rectory at (773) 736-6060.

We are only printing a limited number of copies of the bulletin. If you would like to receive the bulletin through your email please go to <http://ebulletins.jspaluch.com>. Once there use the search zip code, enter 60646 and select QAS and provide the requested information.

The UPP is our one and only fundraiser and we depend heavily on it to help us support the various ministries of the parish. At this time, we remain positive and are planning to have the event at the same time, yet we are making a contingency plan to hold it at a later date. You will receive the invitation to the event in the coming week and I encourage you to make plans to attend.

Our Raffle offers the widest participation and contributes to more than a third of our UPP goal of $275,000. Our next early bird drawing is scheduled for Friday, March 27. Buy your tickets online or pick them up at all the basilica entrances and drop them off at the rectory ASAP to be eligible for our early bird drawing. Who knows, you might be the lucky winner.

FROM FATHER SIMON

Lastly, I do not want to sound like a broken record but as you know our Sunday collections are by far the largest portion of financial support we give to our parish and are critical to the vitality of our health and its sustainability. We are thankful for the continuing generosity of our parishioners. During this difficult time, we ask that you continue to support our church. Our bills continue whether or not our buildings are open. I appeal to your generosity and welcome those who can drop off their weekly envelope at the rectory or mail their weekly envelope to 6280 North Sauganash Avenue or arrange some form of electronic giving. The best way for electronic giving is to donate through our GiveCentral Portal. There is a step-by-step guide included in this bulletin to help you sign up for electronic giving.

Above all – be safe and be concerned for the safety of others.

Blessings!!

Fr. Simon

How to Make a “Spiritual Communion”

- Gather with others in your household and begin a time of prayer with the sign of the cross.
- Take time to listen to the readings from Sunday Mass and spend some time in silent reflection on the readings. You can find them in today’s bulletin or at uscgb.org.
- Share prayer intentions quietly or aloud.
- Pray the Lord’s Prayer.
- Pray the following prayer of “spiritual communion”:

*Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within thy wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be parted from you.
From the evil Enemy defend me.
In the hour of my death call me,
and bid me come to thee,
that with your saints I may praise thee
for age upon age.
Amen.*

- Close with the sign of the cross.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading

1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a

The Lord said to Samuel:
“Fill your horn with oil, and be on your way.
I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem,
for I have chosen my king from among his sons.”

As Jesse and his sons came to the sacrifice,
Samuel looked at Eliab and thought,
“Surely the Lord’s anointed is here before him.”
But the Lord said to Samuel:
“Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature, because I have rejected him.

Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance
but the Lord looks into the heart.”
In the same way Jesse presented seven sons before Samuel,
but Samuel said to Jesse,
“The Lord has not chosen any one of these.”

Then Samuel asked Jesse,
“Are these all the sons you have?”
Jesse replied,
“There is still the youngest, who is tending the sheep.”
Samuel said to Jesse, “Send for him;
we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until he arrives here.”
Jesse sent and had the young man brought to them.
He was ruddy, a youth handsome to behold and making a splendid appearance.
The Lord said,
“There—anoint him, for this is the one!”
Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers;
and from that day on, the spirit of the Lord rushed upon David.

The Word of the Lord: Thanks, be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 23:1-3a,3b-4,5,6,(1)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
Beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths
for his name’s sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side
With your rod and your staff that give me courage.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.
R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

---

Second Reading

Ephesians 5:8-14

Brothers and sisters:
You were once darkness,
but now you are light in the Lord.
Live as children of light,
for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth.
Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord.
Take no part in the fruitless works of darkness;
rather expose them, for it is shameful even to mention the things done by them in secret;

but everything exposed by the light becomes visible, for everything that becomes visible is light.
Therefore, it says:

“Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead,
and Christ will give you light.”

The Word of the Lord: Thanks, be to God.

The Gospel

John 9:1-41

As Jesus passed by he saw a man blind from birth.
His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents,
that he was born blind?”
Jesus answered, “Neither he nor his parents sinned;
it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him.
We have to do the works of the one who sent me while it is day.
Night is coming when no one can work.
While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”
When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes,
and said to him,
“Go wash in the Pool of Siloam” —which means Sent—.
So he went and washed, and came back able to see.

His neighbors and those who had seen him earlier as a beggar said,
“Isn’t this the one who used to sit and beg?”
Some said, “It is, “ but others said, “No, he just looks like him.”
He said, “I am.”
So they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?”
He replied,
“The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’
So I went there and washed and was able to see.”
And they said to him, “Where is he?”
He said, “I don’t know.”

They brought the one who was once blind to the Pharisees.
Now Jesus had made clay and opened his eyes on a sabbath.
So then the Pharisees also asked him how he was able to see.
He said to them,
“He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and now I can see.”
So some of the Pharisees said,
“This man is not from God, because he does not keep the sabbath.”
But others said,
“How can a sinful man do such signs?”
And there was a division among them.
So they said to the blind man again,
“What do you have to say about him, since he opened your eyes?”
He said, “He is a prophet.”

Now the Jews did not believe that he had been blind and gained his sight until they summoned the parents of the one who had gained his sight.
They asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind?
How does he now see?”
His parents answered and said,
“We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.
We do not know how he sees now,
nor do we know who opened his eyes.
Ask him, he is of age;
he can speak for himself.”

His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone acknowledged him as the Christ, he would be expelled from the synagogue.
For this reason his parents said,
“He is of age; question him.”

So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, “Give God the praise!
We know that this man is a sinner.”
He replied, “If he is a sinner, I do not know.
One thing I do know is that I was blind and now I see.”
So they said to him, “What did he do to you?
How did he open your eyes?”
He answered them, “I told you already and you did not listen.
Why do you want to hear it again?

Do you want to become his disciples, too?”
They ridiculed him and said,
“You are that man’s disciple;
we are disciples of Moses!
We know that God spoke to Moses, but we do not know where this one is from.”
The man answered and said to them,
“This is what is so amazing, that you do not know where he is from, yet he opened my eyes.
We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if one is devout and does his will, he listens to him.
It is unheard of that anyone ever opened the eyes of a person born blind.

If this man were not from God,
he would not be able to do anything.”
They answered and said to him,
“You were born totally in sin,
and are you trying to teach us?”
Then they threw him out.

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out,
he found him and said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”
He answered and said,
“Who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?”
Jesus said to him,
“You have seen him,
the one speaking with you is he.”
He said, “I do believe, Lord,” and he worshiped him.
Then Jesus said, “I came into this world for judgment, so that those who do not see might see,
and those who do see might become blind.”

Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this and said to him, “Surely we are not also blind, are we?”
Jesus said to them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you are saying, ‘We see,’ so your sin remains.”

It's easy to participate in electronic giving!

GiveCentral was created with input from parishes in Chicago as a customized online giving program.

GiveCentral is a secure online system where parishioners can create individual giving profiles with payment options ranging from direct debit (ACH) to credit cards.

Benefits for you:

- Increased options and accessibility for giving
- Review your giving history in real time 24/7
- Keep your gifts secure

Benefits for Queen of All Saints:

- Save money on envelopes & postage
- Help predict cash flow for budgeting
- Cost-effective solution for online payments
- Better collection of payment history for tax purposes

Here's how to get set up with GiveCentral:

Go to www.qasbasilica.org and create your own giving profile. Then, simply select how and when you will make your contribution. It's that easy!

You can also contact your parish office to be enrolled, or complete an enrollment card at your parish.

LENT 2020

What are you doing with the 90 for 90 Lenten challenge? Here are some examples of what our parishioners are doing. Email us at gasoffice@gasparish.org with your 90 for 90 accomplishments!

*As Father Simon referenced in his letter, we recognize sending an invitation to a large community event at this time seems incongruent. We are mindful of these trying times, however, we are hopeful the current crisis will pass and we will be able to come together as planned on May 15th to celebrate, in good health, this year's UPP Gala. Of course, we will keep you informed with updates to the best of our ability. For the most up to date information, please visit us at: qasupp@qasparish.org.

STEWARDSHIP

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

Stewardship in Times of Uncertainty

It seems like this global health crisis from COVID-19 was sprung on us very quickly and without warning. Every day seems to bring more uncertainty and restrictions on our ability to be together in shared worship. Regardless, we are called to do our best for ourselves and for each other, even if our only contact with each other is viewing Mass from the basilica through the internet.

And it is during times like these that our church becomes even more important, as we prepare to weather this storm—and to come out in the end a strong and vital parish!

A Word on Our Financial Support Right Now

As we know, our Sunday collection is by far the largest portion of financial support we give to our parish and is critical to the vitality of our health and its sustainability. We are gratified for the continuing generosity of our parishioners. During this difficult time, we ask that you continue to support our parish even when we cannot attend Mass together. Our bills continue whether or not our buildings are open.

We welcome those who can drop off their weekly envelope at the rectory or mail their weekly envelope to 6280 N. Sauganash Ave, Chicago, or arrange some form of electronic giving. The best way for electronic giving is to donate through our GiveCentral portal. Please go to our parish website at qasparish.org, click on the GiveCentral logo and follow the easy prompts. Have any questions about setting up your online donations through GiveCentral? Don't worry, we can help! Please contact the parish office at 773.736.6060.

Today's Readings

*"Not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart."
- 1 Samuel 16:7*

How often do we invest our time, talent, and treasure in creating an appearance that does not matter at all to God? We strive to impress with our clothing, home, career, possessions, car, and other marks of distinction. But none of these illusions of greatness will impress God. Instead, he will look into our hearts to see how much we loved him, how much we loved others and how we showed that love by the way we used our time, talent, and treasure here on earth.

Prayer During Coronavirus

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,
Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas.
We fly to you today as your beloved children.
We ask you to intercede for us with your Son,
as you did at the wedding in Cana.

Pray for us, loving Mother,
and gain for our nation and world,
and for all our families and loved ones,
the protection of your holy angels,
that we may be spared the worst of this illness.

For those already afflicted,
we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance.

Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust.

In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind.
Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts.

We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother,
health of the sick and cause of our joy.

Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms,
help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated at 1:30pm two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
