EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

*The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together,
through word, worship and service.*

FROM FATHER SIMON

In November of 2005, Nike unveiled a 110-foot high by 212-foot wide banner in Cleveland with the slogan ‘we are all witnesses.’ The banner was an obvious tribute to the power and athleticism of the then young basketball phenom, LeBron James.

‘We are all witnesses’ was Peter’s bold proclamation on that first Pentecost about two thousand years ago. To those gathered to listen to a few frightened men who were just driven out of hiding, Peter declared ‘God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses’ (Acts 2:32). What did Peter, the disciples and the women witness on that Easter morning and subsequently?

Witnesses have testified to what they experienced on the first Easter morning. Some women come in a group on Sunday, at dawn, intent on anointing the Lord’s body, properly settling it for decent burial, washing the lifeless limbs and wrapping it together with the spices which they had prepared. Not a pleasant task, but a fitting closure for a person whom these women followed while he was alive.

They are caught by surprise. The huge heavy stone rolled from the mouth of the burial chamber. They approach the tomb with caution and hesitating steps. One of them, hand on the tomb ready to flee, peers into the gloomy interior. No one there! One of them steps into this tiny space and others follow. It’s empty, vacant. Their mouths form large o’s. Suddenly blinking, they witness two men in dazzling white clothes standing beside them. Terror seizes the women. These men say, ‘He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, when he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.’ Then they remembered his words.

The women run to the upper room where Peter, John, and the others are hiding from the authorities and tell the gaping Apostles what they have seen and experienced. Peter and John must see it for themselves so they run to the tomb and stoop and look in. The body of Jesus is not there - the tomb is vacant. They linger, repeatedly gaze around the tiny rock-hued cave. Amazement ties their tongues. For the next forty days, Jesus comes back into their lives several times through closed doors and sometimes walking on water. He also met the women as they fled from the tomb and says to them ‘Do not fear, go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, there they will see me’ (Mt 28:10).

Galilee was the place where it all began, the calling of the twelve, the healings, exorcisms, resuscitations, the multiplication of loaves and fishes and calming the storm. The disciples now begin to see the whole ministry, life, passion and death in the light of the resurrection. They put into writing their experience with Jesus from this perspective and we who read it two thousand years later have the benefit of knowing how the story ends before we even start. The disciples had to live through disappointment, fear, misunderstanding and uncertainty to learn that the 'living one' was their Savior and Lord. They tell us their story of coming to believe – it is their story of faith.

We are all now in a situation where fear and uncertainty has taken control of our lives. We are trying to find a sense of the 'new normal' in our lives. The coronavirus is shaping how we live, relate and respond to life and its challenges. We listen to the news, to stories of helplessness and heroism, selfishness and altruism, everyone has a story to tell. How will we tell our story? Will it be shaped by Easter and our faith? What will our story be, for 'we are all witnesses!'

Blessings!!

Fr. Simon

HAPPY EASTER
TO ALL OF YOU
FROM ALL OF US AT
QUEEN OF ALL SAINTS

WE NEED YOU! WAYS TO GIVE ...

SIGNING UP ON GIVECENTRAL

TEXT TO GIVE

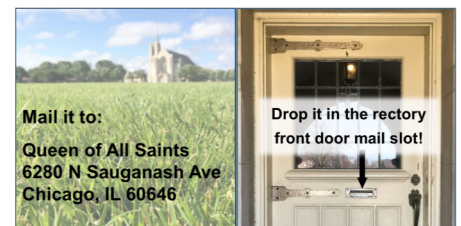

- If you currently have an active GiveCentral account, you may use the cell phone registered to your account to give by text.
 - The phone number to give by text is 773-661-4683.
 - To make a Sunday donation send a text with the keyword “sundayqas” followed by an amount (e.g., to make a $100 donation to Sunday collections, text: sundayqas 100). To make an Easter donation text “easter” followed by the amount. Leave a space between the keyword and the amount.
 - If you do not have a GiveCentral account, you may still text the same way to the same number which will then return a link that will allow you to enter your contact and payment information for your donation.
- At this time, donations may only be made to Sunday and Easter using Text to Give.

OTHER WAYS TO GIVE

If GiveCentral isn't for you, feel free to

- donate online through your bank account
- mail your donation to QAS, 6280 N. Sauganash Ave, Chicago, 60646
- take a walk and drop it off through the slot in the rectory front door!

Also, does your employer make matching donations? Check their policies to see if they can match your gift to Queen of All Saints.

*Finally, to all who already signed up for electronic giving, mailed your donations in or dropped your donation at the rectory
THANK YOU!*

PRAYERS FROM CARDINAL CUPICH & THE POPE

CARDINAL CUPICH'S CALL TO PRAY FOR PARTICULAR INTENTIONS AT SPECIFIED TIMES

9:00 a.m. - Prayer for those infected with the virus and all who are ill

Lord, place your healing hand on those who suffer illness. Bring them to full health and ease their anxious hearts. May our prayer and the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary encourage them that they are not alone. We ask this in Jesus' name. AMEN

12:00 noon - Prayer for health care workers and those attending to the sick

Lord, we are ennobled by those who put their lives at risk in caring for the sick. Keep them safe and embolden them when they are weary. We ask this in Jesus' name. AMEN

3:00 p.m. - Prayer for first responders and essential workers

Lord, we pray for those who run to danger to keep us safe and those who serve the common good. Embrace them with your mantle of protection and comfort the fears of their families. We ask this in Jesus' name. AMEN

6:00 p.m. - Prayer for people of every nation and their leaders

Lord, the pandemic opens our eyes to see each other as brothers and sisters in one human family. We pray for people of every nation and their leaders, asking that they be inspired to seek the good of all and quell the voices of division. We ask this in Jesus' name. AMEN

9:00 p.m. - Prayer for those who have died today

Lord, we grieve the passing of our sisters and brothers who have died this day. We commend them to your tender mercy, confident that nothing, not even death, will separate us from your love. We ask this in Jesus' name. AMEN

Pope Francis composed a prayer to Our Lady, Health of the Sick, to implore her protection during the Covid-19 coronavirus pandemic.

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey
as a sign of salvation and hope.

We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick.
At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith.

You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need.

We are certain that you will provide, so that,
as you did at Cana of Galilee,
joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial.

Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will
and to do what Jesus tells us:

He who took our sufferings upon Himself,
and bore our sorrows to bring us,
through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection.

We seek refuge under your protection,
O Holy Mother of God.

Do not despise our pleas –
we who are put to the test –
and deliver us from every danger,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.
Amen.

Easter 2020

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In this joyful season of Easter, the Church frequently prays Psalm 147. It expresses the new life and hope that we have in the Risen Lord. Here are the opening verses:

Alleluia!
Sing praise to the Lord who is good;
sing to our God who is loving;
to God our praise is due.

The Lord builds up Jerusalem
and brings back Israel's exiles,
God heals the broken-hearted
and binds up all their wounds.

Indeed, God is good. The Resurrection of Jesus leads us out of exile from the land of sin and death to new life. The power and presence of the Risen Lord heals our wounded and fragile lives and binds our hearts with new hope. That is why we sing praise to the Lord who is good.

With this great song of praise, Easter also challenges all of us to re-imagine our lives in light of the Resurrection of Jesus. With his grace, we can break free from the cycles of pain, violence, destructive forces, misunderstandings, and everything else that weighs us and our world down. We can re-envision our lives and live differently.

May God grant you and your loved ones renewal and joy in the Risen Lord Jesus.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Kard. Cupich".
Archbishop of Chicago

STEWARDSHIP

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

Please Remember Our Parish This Easter

Our Easter collection is one of our two major annual Holy Day collections to support our parish.

We are faced with an unprecedented challenge to both our present and our future. Our loss of physical community and our sacred space is felt deeply within our hearts and minds.

In normal times we depend on the support of our parishioners throughout the year to fund our total operating budget. Now we must remind ourselves that our bills continue whether our not our buildings are open, including the constant maintenance and repair of our buildings so that they are ready for us when our current ordeal is over and we can again meet in shared worship, in our ministries, and for the education of our youth.

We welcome those who can drop off their weekly envelope at the rectory or mail their weekly envelope to 6280 N. Sauganash Ave, Chicago, or arrange some form of electronic giving. The best way for electronic giving is to donate through our GiveCentral portal. Please go to our parish website at qasparish.org, click on the GiveCentral logo and follow the easy prompts.

Our parish is our family in faith, and like any good family we are called to be present to each other even when we are physically apart. We support each other in our hopes for a return to shared worship, in our shared prayers, and in our shared experiences. No matter our circumstances our giving to others truly is a shared message of hope in the Risen Lord this Easter.

Thank you for all you do for our parish!

Today's Readings

"Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth." - Colossians 3:2

Do you put God first in all things? Possessions, money, power, ego can easily become gods to many of us. Do a quick check of what is important to you. Is God at the very top of the list? If not, your priorities need to be re-adjusted. Don't let earthly things become a god before God. This is also the first commandment – I am the Lord your God, you shall not have any strange gods before me.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

If there is such a thing as a Catholic “trademark” it is the sign of the cross, first traced on the senses of catechumens as they begin the journey to baptism, or on the forehead of an infant who is brought to the doors of the church at baptism.

As early as the third century, Christians were tracing the sign of the cross on their bodies. At first, the cross was traced on the forehead during times of prayer and daily occupations. We use a similar small cross today as we trace the cross over on the forehead, lips, and heart at the Gospel during Mass. Much later, the full-body sign traced from forehead to heart to shoulders took shape, perhaps copying the priest’s gesture of blessing with the consecrated host during Mass. Today, this superb baptismal gift is a sign of belonging to Christ and the community, a way of focusing our attention, of asking for God’s blessing, of tracing on our shoulders a willingness to find meaning in life’s burdens. In the sign of the cross, we have an ever-available means of expressing gratitude for our baptism.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated at 1:30pm two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.

OTHER NEWS

Today's Readings

First Reading - Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen (Acts 10:34a, 37-43).

Psalm - This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad (Psalm 118).

Second Reading - All who are baptized, set your hearts in heaven (Colossians 3:1-4).

Gospel - Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John; each responds to the empty tomb (John 20:1-9).

SEEDS OF FAITH - There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information “bullet points.” Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or “kernels” of our faith. Actually, “kernels” or “seeds” are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter “seeds” of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days. Copyright © J. S. Paluch
