THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The community of Queen of All Saints is committed to Christ, sharing God's gifts and building the Church together, through word, worship and service.

FROM FATHER SIMON

Last September, on my seventh trip to the Holy Land, I finally got to see the church in Emmaus which marks the place that recounts today's Gospel passage. This passage is special to me and it means more to me today, given the current situation in which we find ourselves.

It begs to be recognized as a story about our lives, and it is a story with which we are familiar. It is a story of shattering and restoration. If our life has ever been shattered then this is our story. If our life has ever been restored then this is our story. And if we've ever been in that in-between place, between shattering and restoration, then this is our story.

The two disciples are leaving Jerusalem. They walked along, heart-broken, grief-stricken and traumatized by the recent events involving Jesus. He was the one in whom they had such faith, the miracle worker, the wonder teacher, the one they thought would conquer Israel's enemies and set her free. Yet, he was crucified.

"We were hoping..." they explained. Now their hopes were shattered, their dreams dashed. All seemed utterly lost. And Jesus quietly joins them, patiently listens and explains things to them. The two disciples were so caught up with sadness, blinded by grief, consumed by disappointment, that they failed to recognize Jesus. However, there was comfort in the stranger's words and a feeling that their spirits were lifted up, so much so that they invited the stranger to stay with them. When he sat down to dinner with them and broke bread, they recognized him. Immediately he was gone from their sight but not from their presence.

Like the disciples of Emmaus, we too can lose heart, suffer times of trauma and experience grief, such that when life seems hopeless, we hardly know what to do, where to go. We hope that we will find a cure, that death would not come, that a disaster would be averted. In all of this, Jesus is at our side at every moment of our lives. Often, though, we do not realize his presence, especially in those darker moments. His presence is with us in the Word that is spoken to us and in the Eucharist that we share.

With the reality of what we are facing in our lives, what others are facing around us, and what our world is facing together, the question asked by many is how can we continue to have hope? I invite you to join the parish community for an online retreat titled "Making Hope Real" on Tuesday April 28, from 5:30 to 8:30pm. The retreat will be held via Zoom. Please register in advance at bit.ly/qasretreat so that we can get you the Zoom link. Stay safe and healthy.

Blessings!!

Fr. Simon

Making Hope Real

A Live Virtual Retreat Presented by Becky Eldredge for the Queen of All Saints Community

Becky Eldredge is an Ignatian-trained spiritual director, retreat facilitator, and author. Passionate about Ignatian spirituality and teaching people how to pray, Becky leans on her twenty years of ministry experience to help people make room for God in the busyness and invite them into deeper relationship with God. She shares life with her husband and three children.

FIGHTING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DURING THE COVID-19 CRISIS

DV hotline calls have increased. Check on those who may need help during this crisis. Experience and data teach us that financial crises, home confinement and prolonged stress exacerbate the frequency and intensity of domestic violence. It is no surprise that the Covid-19 pandemic has made life more dangerous for many already at risk in our country. The Illinois Domestic Violence Hotline reports that calls for help have increased 50% in March, from 60 to 90 a day. Some victims were about to leave their abuser, but now the abuser is home all the time, and they have less opportunity to free themselves. Some are in counseling, and now in-person services are unavailable. Some abusers are more angry by loss of work or home quarantine and thus more threatening to their partners.

If you know or suspect someone is a victim, please check on them! If they are in immediate need, help them call 911. Victims, as well as concerned family members, friends or neighbors can call the National DV Hotline at 1-800-799-7233. The Illinois Domestic Violence Hotline, 877-863-6338 can also be called, as well as any other reputable DV resource to help victims connect with support and services.

A CALL TO CARE FOR CREATION

As people all over the world struggle to cope with the COVID -19 Pandemic, it has never been clearer that we (and the rest of God's creation) are all connected. Back in January, when members of the Social Justice Ministry and the Youth Ministry met to plan for QAS' Second Annual Earth Day Celebration, we had no inkling of what was to come. And yet it seems particularly apt that the the pandemic and Earth Day would intersect, as both call us to address the needs of our local neighbors and communities, while joining with people throughout the world to solve our common problems.

But the scale of our work is daunting. Where do we as Catholics find "food for the journey?"

Catholic Climate Covenant, formed in 2006 with the help of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), invites you to participate in "Hope for Creation," a virtual celebration of both the 50th anniversary of Earth Day and the 5th anniversary of Holy Father Pope Francis' groundbreaking encyclical, "Laudato Si'." From now until May 24, Catholic Climate Covenant will be posting prayers, meditations, visual art and songs that "lift up our love and hope for God's great creation" for use between Earth Day and "Laudato Si'"week. If you would like to submit an entry for consideration (yours or someone else's) or would simply like to read the offerings of others, visit:

Stewardship in Time of COVID-19

With the worldwide outbreak of the coronavirus, we are confronted once more with the fragility of our lives, and again we are reminded of our common humanity - that the peoples of this world are our brothers and sisters, that we are all one family under God.

God does not abandon us, he is with us even now in this time of trial and testing. Now is the time to intensify our prayers and sacrifices for the love of God and the love of our neighbors and fellow parishioners. Let us draw closer to one another in our love for him, and rediscover the things that truly matter in our lives.

In our own parish we are faced with an unprecedented challenge to both our present and our future. Our loss of physical community and our sacred space is felt deeply within our hearts and minds.

In normal times we depend on the support of our parishioners throughout the year to fund our total operating budget. Now we must remind ourselves of the mundane fact that our bills continue whether or not our buildings are open, including the constant maintenance and repair of our buildings so that they are ready for us when this current ordeal is over and we can again meet in shared worship, in our ministries, and for the education of our youth.

We welcome those who can drop off their weekly envelope at the rectory or mail their weekly envelope to 6280 N. Sauganash Ave, Chicago, or arrange some form of electronic giving. The best way for electronic giving is to donate through our GiveCentral portal. Please go to our parish website at qasparish.org, click on the GiveCentral logo and follow the easy prompts.

Our parish is our family in faith, and like any good family we are called to be present for each other even when we are physically apart. We support each other in our hopes for a return to shared worship, in our shared prayers, and in our shared experiences.

Thank you for all you do for our parish!

Today's Readings

"Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the scriptures?"
- Luke 24:32

How often do we take the time to figure out what Jesus truly wants from us? Are our prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for us? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take advantage of this time we have in silence to listen to what Jesus is asking of you.

A New Option - The Blue Envelope

We've announced our drive to replenish our endowments by $5 million. The bi-monthly mailing of Offertory envelopes will now include blue envelopes which can be used to make direct contributions to our parish endowments, in addition to our usual Sunday giving.

For further convenience the blue envelope is also available as a GiveCentral electronic giving option.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

“Mystagogy,” reflection on the Easter mysteries, is the chief task of these great fifty days, a “pentecost,” in other words, of grace and renewal. Every Sunday we have accounts of resurrection appearances of the Lord, and sketches of the earliest efforts at being church.

Lent is described as a journey to the font, and Easter may be described in similar terms, since at the very beginning an angel tells the apostles that the Risen Lord “has gone before you into Galilee.” Galilee, of course, was the place where Jesus did his finest work, his preaching, his healing, his gathering the lost and the marginalized to the table. At Easter, we hurry to catch up, putting our renewed baptismal promises to work in our own personal “Galilees”, our little “worlds” waiting for a word of grace, a healing, an act of pardon, an invitation to share a meal. The water often splashed on our Sunday assemblies in Eastertide reminds us that these are the golden, shining days of grace, days to nurture the heart, to speak to one another about things that really matter.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Queen of All Saints rejoices in the incorporation of new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism. If you are a registered parishioner, please come to the rectory during business hours to schedule your child's baptism. If it is not possible for you to come to the rectory, please call the rectory to make arrangements. The Sacrament of Baptism for infants is celebrated at 1:30pm two or three Sundays of the month, depending on the time of year. Please call the rectory for the exact schedule. A baptismal preparation class for the parents is required. They are held once a month on alternate Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and must be scheduled in advance. If an adult or a school age child seeks baptism, special arrangements should be made with one of the priests.

The Sacrament of Matrimony

Queen of All Saints helps couples prepare not only for their wedding day, but also for the lifelong commitment of living a Christian marriage. Parishioners of Queen of All Saints Basilica who are baptized and free to marry in the Catholic Church may celebrate their marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica. Couples from Queen of All Saints seeking marriage in Queen of All Saints Basilica should contact one of the parish priests at least six months prior to their intended date of marriage. The couple must meet with one of the priests before the date for the marriage can be confirmed.

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is not just a sacrament for those who are at the point of death. As soon as one of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him or her to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived. Therefore, any member of the faithful who is seriously ill because of sickness or advanced age may properly receive this sacrament.
